Trophies for all classes with three or more participants, or Grand Champion in Halter

On Saturday night there will be "Jackpot Fun Classes" (western classes made for fun). The trail has some special tasks. The pleasure is bareback and Barrel Race is with a cup of water in your hand. We hope that many of you want to participate in these fun classes.

It is possible to pre-order breakfast, lunch and dinner Saturday. This makes it a little easier for us to plan the food in the cafeteria and you can save a little. However, it is also possible to buy food without advance request. For breakfast there are rolls with cold cuts, for lunch there is sandwich and for dinner Saturday there is burger menu. In addition comes the hot dog stand after 14.00 Saturday and throughout Sunday.

The small print: With my binding signature I hereby affirm that the said horse has liability insurance and is free of disease on the show day and I agree to comply with the rules as stated in the show announcement and the updated APHA Rulebook. To process the entry form all fees have to be paid in full. In case of illness on horse or exhibitor, half of the entry fee will be refunded upon presentation of, respectively, veterinary or medical certificate. The certificate must be submitted within a week after the last show date. The Office Charge (not the APHA fee) has to be paid in full. Stall Fees will only be refunded if the stall could be let to another person. In the case of common use or self-sublet of the stall, it must be paid by him/her who ordered the stall.
